Commitment Letter

Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I am pleased to confirm that The National Projects Foundation supports the ten principles of the UN.

Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment, and anti-corruption. With this commitment, we express our intent to advance these principles within our sphere of influence, and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We also pledge to take part in the activities of the UN Global Compact where appropriate and feasible – through, for instance, participation in Country/Local Networks; involvement in specialized initiatives and workstreams; engagement in partnership projects; and reviewing and providing commentary to participating companies on their Communications on Progress.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Mikael S. Dashian
President

Enclosure No 1

Support of the Global Compact and its Principles

Dear Sirs

The National projects Foundation expresses support to the UN Global Compact and its principles. One can state that at present the National Projects Foundations is doing its utmost so that the Global Compact and its principles become a part of day-to-day activities of the Foundation.

The National Projects Foundation executes activities connected with the strategic consulting of companies penetrating new regional markets (in the sphere of pharmaceuticals and others), we are also engaged in the International Cultural Exchange project (ICE), connected with the cross-cultural interaction. We arrange exhibitions and seminars of artists from different countries.

As the visitors of our exhibitions are the representatives of large business and VIPs, we consider it important to promote the UN Global Compact and its principles at our events. Taking into account that we have to communicate and interact with artists and galleries from such countries as Poland, Suriname, Myanmar, India, New Zealand, The Netherlands, Egypt, Solomon Islands, South Africa, Fiji, Belize, Mexico, Japan, Italy and etc., as well as with the authorities of the above countries, there are all reasons to assume that our support of the Global Compact and its principles shall be an additional factor, increasing the awareness thereof all over the world.

Moreover we are ready to consider offers for organization of international art exhibitions and cultural events, dedicated to the Global Compact and its principles. Many contemporary artists pay much attention in their works to such problems as child labour, unfair labour practices, ecological responsibility, human rights abuse and corruption.

Therefore taking into account our possibilities we are interested to spread information at our events information on the the Global Compact and its principles, arrange special events in different countries of the world in cooperation with the UN organizations and assist in promotion of the above document.

The Foundation activities complies with the Global Compact and its principles, we totally share its aims and targets. The National Projects Foundation and our partners in different countries realize a number of projects, directly or indirectly aimed at promotion of the Global Compact and its principles.

Participation in the UN Global Compact allows the National Projects Foundation and its principles to set a more efficient informational exchange with its members all over the world, obtain up-to-date information on the foreign experience of promotion of the Global Compact and its principles, as well as widely spread and promote the Compact in our activity.

Exhibitions dedicated to the Global Compact

*Attn.: Mr. H.E. Ban Ki-moon
Secretary-General*

Dear Sirs,

In confirmation of the fact that the National Projects Foundation shares the Global Compact and its principles, we suggest arranging a number of expositions, dedicated to such problems as child labour, unfair labour practices, ecological responsibility, human rights abuse and corruption. At present we have already collected a ready-to-exhibit expositions of paintings of such artists as Anand Binda (Suriname), Tint Zaw (Myanmar), Thet Oo Maung (Myanmar), Fred Oge (Solomon Islands), etc.

We are ready to discuss the possibility of the exhibition of the artworks in the UN institutions in Russia, Europe and the USA, aimed at the Global Compact and its principles.

Best regards,

Mr. Mikael S. Dashian
